

Special Edition: 2024 Resources

Here is the 2024 issue that alerts you to solo exhibit, networking and learning opportunities. We'll continue to share artist calls for group exhibits via the monthly newsletters.

Save this valuable bulletin for future reference.

If you learn of additional resources that should be included in the next edition, please share at any time: info@ghaa.art. And if any of this info proves to be incorrect, please let us know.

The GHAA has a number of display easels and a canvas sling rack for our members to borrow - just ask.
