November 2018 NEWS

Send items (announcements, opportunities) by the end of the month, questions and feedback at anytime, to info@ghaa.art. If you are having a solo show, open studio, or similar event, or have your work juried into an exhibit or receive an honor, tell us so we can share the good news. Have you not received recognition when your colleagues have? We do our best to stay abreast of the art scene, but we depend on you to notify us directly of your honors. Don't be modest - we want to rejoice with you! If you or another member experiences a life event (marriage, birth, hospitalization, etc.) and would welcome recognition/support from the rest of us, do let us know.

GHAA NEWS!

Membership renewal is due now - and doing it ONLINE is so easy!

Susan Ellis gave a demo in pastels at Buttonwoods on October 28, creating a figure in a landscape. The subject of the painting was one of the series she's been working on - clamdiggers on local mudflats.

Our partner iHub at the UMASS Lowell campus in Haverhill is hosting a Pop-Up Art Exhibit featuring the six Art Niche artists of 2018: Debbie Shirley, Maria Nemchuk, Susan Kneeland, James McCarthy, Nicole McLean, and Michael Guarino. It will be held 5:30-7:30 on Thursday, November 8. Spotighting art in Haverhill, other art-focused groups will also participate.

Enter by November 10 the members' Holiday Small Works Show at the Hall-Haskell Gallery in Ipswich. It will be four days: November 15-18, 1-5 PM daily. For this show you may submit: two wall-hung works (11"x14" or smaller, including frame) or 3-D table pieces; up to five bin pieces (prints must be marked as such); notecards (packaged, not singles) and calendar items. For this show the work may have been exhibited previously with the GHAA. For pricing, keep in mind the purpose of the show is to encourage sales intended as gifts. Delivery to Ipswich is Thursday morning, November 15 (10 - noon) OR to Ann during the week prior (info@ghaa.art to arrange). Enter with the link <http://haverhillartassociation.org> or use the two-page entry form HERE. The 2nd page must be printed and completed if you are entering binwork/notecards. There will be a public reception on Sunday November 18 (1-5) and unsold art must be taken at 5:00, the close of the reception.

Cogswell ArtSpace has a new fundraising challenge. A private foundation has challenged Reinvent Cogswell to match their donation of $25,000 to Cogswell ArtSpace, for a total of $50,000 by the end of 2018. As of right now, 81% of the total budget of $2,550,000 is secured, and this year-end fundraiser will make a significant dent in the remaining 19% of the funding goal. So close to seeing the dream come to life! Be moved to contribute - every bit helps. The link for donating online is <https://www.paypal.com/us/fundraiser/charity/1441258> or mail a check to Cogswell Initiative, c/o Creative Haverhill, PO Box 205, Haverhill MA 01831.

Cogswell Art Center is preparing for the next round of grant applications and would like to get a sense of what activities might be held there. They're asking who may be interested in offering instruction to adults or children, what topic or topics they would teach, and what they would anticipate as to the frequency and duration of classes. This is not a commitment - just an indication of interest. Contact Tina Fuller by email at tfuller66@comcast.net or by phone at 978 697-5620.

Tracy Meola and Kathleen Bennett have volunteered to decorate the ArtisTree with the wee art by members and friends. Member artists have informal demos on Sunday afternoons during the Festival of Trees: November 25 at noon Joan Turner, at 2:30 Kathleen Bennett; December 2 at noon Susan Kneeland, at 2:30 Greg Moutafis; December 9 at noon Debbie Shirley, at 2:30 James McCarthy. Informal means artists set up and work at their art and casually chat with folks attending the event.

Are you receiving our news and benefiting from all the GHAA has to offer, but are not yet a member? We hope you'll join us! The GHAA year is September 1 - August 3. If your membership has lapsed, consider renewing - still a bargain at $30 (if you attend the five demos and enter one piece in the Annual Open Exhibit as a non-member, it would be more than the membership fee). We do not mail individual renewal notices to keep expenses down. It's also a good time to UPDATE YOUR BIO; send the current one to info@ghaa.art or bring it to the next event. Do you have representative IMAGES ON THE WEBSITE? Have you updated them recently? Did you notice that each new sletter features the work of a different member? Send images to dshirleyart@yahoo.com.

ARTISTIC OPPORTUNITIES

- Innovation Hub of UMASS Lowell at Harbor Place (2 Merrimack Street, Haverhill, 3rd floor) is partnering with the GHAA to showcase members in an Art Niche, a space that lends itself to featuring a single artist for a two-month period. Two adjacent walls (5 ft and 8 ft) can accommodate 2 very large paintings or 10 very small paintings, or a mix of in-between sizes. There is a surface for promotional materials and perhaps a small sculpture. The venue hours are Monday - Friday, 8:30 - 5:00 (www.uml.edu/ihub). There is no charge to participate; the usual 65/20/15 % (artist/GHAA/venue) will apply to any sales. If you are interested in participating, respond to info@ghaa.art. Michael Guarino is the Featured Artist for November-December.

- The Annual Art Festival at Veasey Park in Groveland is November 3rd and 4th. A number of GHAA artists are participating in this fundraising event.
